Manager, Isabel Johnson Shelter and Kikinaw Residence

Department: Women's Housing

Hours of Work: 37.5 hours a week (average)

Salary: $51,187.50 yearly salary

Reporting Relationship: Director of Kinship and Program Development

The YWCA Regina exists to support and empower women, children and youth in addressing their diverse needs in the realization of their full potential, which benefits all. Further, it exists so that:

- Women, children and youth are safe, secure and free from abuse,
- Women, youth and children are empowered and supported in making healthy choices,
- Women, youth and children are making independent choices and are taking responsibility for their lives, and
- Women, youth and children work towards a better world for themselves and others.

Position Description

Under the supervision of the Director of Kinship and Program Development, and as a member of the Women's Housing leadership team, the Manager is responsible for overseeing all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the Isabel Johnson Shelter, an emergency shelter for women and children experiencing domestic violence, and Kikinaw Residence, an affordable supported housing facility for women. The Manager will take a trauma informed, harm reduction approach to create a communal environment for the residents, and encourage a healthy team culture amongst program staff focused on collaboration, a respectful approach to challenging issues, and a culture of ongoing learning and incorporation of best practices.

Responsibilities include:

Human Resources: The Manager will foster a cohesive and effective staff team that works collectively to support clients. This will include direct supervision of staff in the Isabel Johnson Shelter and Kikinaw Residence to focus on coaching, feedback, fostering professional development, and completing regular performance reviews and accountability agreements. The Manager will work with the Director of Kinship and Program Development and the Manager of Human Resources to advertise, interview, and hire new staff when needed; communicate personnel changes to Finance (payroll Authorizations, new hire forms, etc); develop shift schedules and maintain effective procedures for filling shifts; and track employee sick/vacation time. The Manager will facilitate and lead regular communication within the team, including leading regular staff meetings, notifying staff of upcoming events, and connecting staff to the other departments in Women's Housing and the entire YWCA. In collaboration with the Director of Kinship and Program Development and the Director of Training and Development, the Manager will implement the annual training plan, while also identify ongoing staff training needs.

Program Development: Working collaboratively with the Senior Director of Housing and Director of Kinship and Program Development, the Manager will ensure a high quality of programming, supports, and services being provided, including leading best practices in client support, case management, and systems navigation that are based on the principles of trauma-informed practice, harm reduction, cultural safety, Housing First, and feminism. The Manager will support the coordination and maintenance of the policies, procedures, and systems necessary to ensure the program is operating efficiently and effectively and is achieving desired outcomes and will look for opportunities to refine and improve service where possible. As necessary, the Manager will attend relevant community meetings/events and will foster a good working relationship with community partners.

Administration: The Manager will oversee efficient and effective data collection, with careful attention to requirements set out in funding agreements. With support from the Director of Kinship and Program Development, the Manager will ensure all reporting and licencing requirements are met and will oversee the general maintenance and operations of the Isabel Johnson Shelter and Kikinaw Residence. The Manager will monitor and approve budgeted expenditures and ensure spending for both salary and non-salary expenses falls within the budget. The Manager will also be responsible for other duties that arise in the operation of the Isabel Johnson Shelter and Kikinaw Residence, including being on-call one weekend per month and working front-line in emergency situations.
